PROPERTIES OF THE BENZINE. PROPERTIES OF THE BENZINE.

The Benzine is used for removing stains produced by greaty bedies such as oil, butter, tailow, tar, wax candle, fresh paint, and dirt upon furnitate and clothes by rabbing of the hancs and hair. It may be applied also upon all times of cloth, whatever may be the quality, without loying the lutter of the colors—even the most delicate. Its smell, though not disagreeable, is rather sharp when first used, but it disappears rapidly, without leaving any trace. It is un alterable, sand may be kept for years without its properties being in the least altered. The Benzine is also used for cleaning gloves, without charging the color; for washing painter's brushes (for this use it is superior to any estence), for diluting oil calors and for taking out stains on paper. The Benzine is prenaps the oily preparation used with success for removing greasy stains on engratings, drawings, plens, and alk kinds of papers, and also in slik ribbons of 3t colors with makes it look equal to new.

DNSEPPLA SPECIFIC. There is scarcely a phase or form of this dense which is not promptly controlled and ultimately cured by the use of this Specific. Thousands who have suffered for via with this "Billion Condition" having purchased a case of these Specifics, have obtained a perfect cure and immunity from their side of mpiving.

COUGHS COLDS, and SORE THROATS, which so frequently lead to BRONCHITIS and CONSUMPTION, are all, in their carry stores, promptly cured by the Cough Pitlis. Many cases of long vanding Bronchits and pritising Cough have been perfectly outed by this Specific. But more imany persons have a peculiar field ity to code, and take them from the least exposure. This will be naticely relieved by the use of the COUGH PILLS. As corres can testify from experience.

So CATARRH is one of our most common and most troublewing of the perfectly counted by the correct of present persons and the case of CATARRH by the nate of the long scanding and obstimate cases of CATARRH by the use of this Specific. FROM PARIS!!

RIBBONS are now the most popular trimmings for dresses.

Indeed, we are informed by the latest importations that Fringes are not used AT ALL in Paris.

The latites of the French capital are all adopting Ribbons.

DRESSMAKERS who wish to keep pace with the leading fashions about observe this change, and trim their garments with appropriately colored Ribbons.

But, in electing Ribbons, continuers should paironize only the reliable Importers or Dealers, whose anartments are generally seasonable and fresh.

We have been very favorably impressed with the extonsive stock offered by LITCHENSTEIN, No. 397 Broadway, N. Y.

The amount of Ribbons soid by LITCHENSTEIN is almost incredible.

Some of his latest styles are strikingly novel and be sutiful.
